Circuit of Ohio.

THE POLITICIAN.

It will not be the fault of the House if there is not an early adjournment of Congress. Only one appropriation bill —General Deficiency—remains to be acted upon, and the Committee on Rules is now engaged in mapping out a program as to how to dispose of the remaining time of the session. Although nothing is yet definitely decided upon, it is regarded as certain that the Bankruptcy bill, the bill for the codification of pension laws, and as many of the contested election cases as can be reported will be disposed of before adjournment. It is doubtful whether any other measures of national importance will be considered, although the pressure to dispose of the Pacific Railroads bill, which has been agreed upon, is strong, and Speaker Reed is personally in favor of disposing of it at this session; but many members think they would prefer having a chance to familiarize themselves with this bill before voting upon it and for that reason favor postponing its consideration until the next session. So far as known the Senators will throw no obstacles in the way of early adjournment, but Senator Gorman has dropped a hint which some believe to indicate the contrary.

Senator Quay is back in his seat, but further than to say that he has not withdrawn his name as a candidate for the Republican nomination and that he is entirely satisfied with the present outlook he will not talk for publication about the campaign for the nomination. The McKinley men are as confident as ever that he will be the nominee and they are doing more talking than the supporters of the other candidates. There is reason to believe that Speaker Reed has personally called down several of his prominent supporters whom he thought were talking too much, by advising them to do more hustling and less talking.

It took the House just three hours, the greater portion of that time being taken up with speeches in favor of the bill, to pass the fortification bill, carrying appropriations of $11,000,000 for the erection and strengthening of needed fortifications. Even the Democrats admit that in view of the recent cocky attitude of the United States, which has been so generally endorsed by public sentiment, we must make some preparations to defend ourselves in case of war, and the strongest friends of peace regard such preparation as the surest way of remaining at peace with the world. The nation that is thoroughly prepared to defend itself is very seldom attacked.

It seems difficult to believe that any man of even ordinary common sense would endorse the scheme which is heralded as the one upon which the Democratic party hopes to elect a President this year, but such men as Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and ex-Speaker Crisp, of Georgia, have been publicly spoken of as endorsing it and no denials have been made. So it is presumed that they and the other Democrats mentioned in the same connection do endorse the scheme, which is several points worse than its very worst predecessor. According to the scheme, the Democrats are to keep up their present fight among themselves over silver, and the majority of the Chicago convention is to decide whether a gold or silver candidate and platform shall be set up. Whichever way the convention goes the minority is to bolt and put out a ticket and platform in accordance with its views. Then there will be two Democratic national tickets in the field, one for silver and one for gold, and just here the fine work of the scheme is to begin. Only one set of Democratic Presidential electors are to be run in each state, the silver ticket to have a clear field in those states in which the silver sentiment is believed to be dominant and the gold ticket in those states where a majority are likely to be for gold.
The originators of this scheme have such a poor opinion of the intelligence of the voters that they believe, or say they do, that enough states can be carried by the two Democratic tickets combined to make a majority in the electoral college, and they propose that they shall all be cast for the ticket which has a majority of them.
Now isn't that a scheme worthy of the party which has stood for about every imaginable side of every public question, and which has invariably adopted a national platform that could be interpreted to represent the views of voters radically opposed to each other?
Playing the voters for fools is a very old Democratic game—nothing else kept the south solid for years; but let them try this double ticket game and the Democratic party will never have another national ticket.

Matabeles Massing Near Bulawayo.
CAPE TOWN, April 18.—Advices which left Bulawayo by coach have been received here stating that the Matabeles are massing men to the northeast of that place and sending out small looting parties. The hostile Matabeles are within half an hour's march of the town.

One Killed and Two Injured.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 18.—Foreman Hoskins of the Crow's Nest mine, near Sherbrooke, was killed Saturday by an explosion caused by concussion. A man named Conrad, another named Springfield and several others were injured, but none seriously.

accused of revolting cruelties towards her grandchildren, Percy and Onetta Short, was found guilty Saturday and was sentenced to imprisonment for the remainder of her life.

urday refused to grant a new trial to der of Fritz Holzheuter January 30, 1895, and sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on May 15.

Wabash Pioneer Dead.

Herff, an old citizen, died here of grip and heart trouble. Mr. Herff was 81 years old and quite wealthy. He had been a resident of Wabash for about forty years.

Granted a Divorce.

KOKOMO, Ind., April 18.—Orrin W.
Main, a wealthy resident of this county, was granted a divorce Friday from his wife. Main is 78 years of age, the divorced wife 65. This was Mr. Main's fourth matrimonial venture.

Two Aged Men Dead.

MILTON, Ind., April 18.—Isaac Kinsey, a wealthy citizen of Wayne county, died Friday morning at the age of 75 years. John Wissler, a pioneer, died Friday at the age of 96 years.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The Kelley & Kennedy and Buckley, Bisantz and Berry No. 3 in the shallow sand back of the Henderson farm were drilled in Saturday and are reported to be dry holes. Bisantz and Buckley will put down another well immediately.

Mallory Bros' Eliza Delong No. 1, which was drilled in last week, has been cleaned out and tubed, and is now making fifty barrels per day. It is said to be one of the best wells in the Broad Run field.

The derrick has been moved on the Boanell lease on C. C. Schaevecker, and the old hole abandoned with two sets of tools in it. The new hole will be begun by McCauley as soon as a stem arrives.

The Great Kanawha Company's well on their C. C. Schaevecker lease has a set of tools loose in it about ten feet above the sand, the rope having parted about forty feet above the socket.
They are waiting for fishing tools.

Mallory Bros' No. 1 on the T. H. C.
Reynolds lease began drilling on Wednesday evening. It is thought this will be a good well.

Graham's No. 1 on the Cain farm on French Creek ought to get the first sand today. There is quite a good deal of interest manifested in this well, as it will open up a considerable territory if it is a good producer.

Capt. McLaughlin has not yet got his Rodney Reynolds well to drilling, but will probably be ready shortly.

The Barnsdall & Reynolds well on Rock Run is down about one thousand feet with plenty of red rock. They should get the Keener sand by the last of this week.

The tools are reported fast in the Bettman & Watson No. 3 on Shingle-ton at Hebron. Out of three or four wells drilling in that vicinity, none have got the sand at last reports.

Williamson & Company's well on the R. S. Reynolds lease on Middle Island is being drilled down to the "Big In-jun" sand. It is quite a nice little well as it is, but the company seem to want something better.

The same company have the timbers on the ground for a well on the Gale land on Middle Island. This well will be located some three hundred feet to the north of the Reynolds well.—

IN A FIT OF JEALOUSY

Albert Somerville Kills Ella Somerville and Then Attempts Suicide.

RICHMOND, Tex., April 18.—Albert Somerville, in a fit of jealousy, shot and almost instantly killed Ella Somerville, a daughter of Judge H. L. Somerville, postmaster of this city, Saturday morning, then attempted suicide, but made only a slight wound. Miss Somerville was a popular and highly esteemed young lady. The young man came here recently from Alabama, where his parents reside. He is a nephew of Judge Somerville and was visiting at his uncle's house at the time.
The tragedy occurred in the street just in front of Somerville's home. Young Somerville was in love with the young lady, but on account of relationship between the young people the parents refused to consent to their marriage.
Somerville is in jail.

Frosts in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Fruit in the orchards of the central part of the state has been severely damaged by frost during the last two nights. The rain crop in the Fresno district will be short and two-thirds of the grapes in the Callistoga region were destroyed.
Grapevines in the vicinity of Stockton were killed to a large extent, and vineyard men say there will not be half a crop in the adjacent counties. Much fruit around San Jose was killed.

Russell a Presidential Candidate.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A Boston special says: Ex-Gov. Wm. E. Russell, through Judge John W. Corcoran, chairman of the democratic state committee, announces his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the presidency. Mayor Quincy, ex-chairman of the democratic national executive committee, who started Secretary Olney's boom, said that Olney was out of the race, and that he would support Russell.

Four Men Killed by Falling Rock.

SCHAXTON, April 18.—Falling rock in the Teddy creek shaft at Olyphant about 11:30 o'clock Saturday killed four men. The victims are Ralph and James Abbott, brothers, who lived at Throop; John McHale, of Olyphant, and Wm.
Harvey, Priceburg. The men were known as rock miners and were driving a tunnel from one part of the mine when a rock fell and killed them.

Dead in a Pool.

CANTON, O., April 18.—Mrs. David Lowrey, of Mapleton, this county, was found dead in a shallow pool in the yard by her husband when he came to dinner. He asked a three-year-old son "Where is mamma?" and the reply was "In the water." It is supposed she fell in a faint, struck her head on a stone and was rendered unconscious. Her mouth and part of her face only were submerged.

Col. Cockerill's Remains.

American colony. The Khedive was
